

DEBARKING DAMAGE CAUSED BY WILD UNGULATES TO CONIFEROUS STANDS

→ FFH 11

* In total, nineteen cantonments participate in the inventory of debarking damage in coniferous stands; their surface area corresponds overall to the red deer's natural range in Wallonia. For Marche-en-Famenne, the number of sampling units was insufficient to allow statistical processing of the data.